

MEDIATION TRAINING

PRESENTED BY THE WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA CHAPTER OF THE FEDERAL BAR ASSOCIATION

This interactive mediation training program combines experiential and lecture components, and will cover conflict resolution theory; reflective listening skills; identifying interests and positions; interest-based problem-solving; understanding conflict behaviors; small group exercises and role plays; and different approaches to mediation. The training will also include details about the federal court ADR program. The trainers for this program are Karen Engro, Esquire, and Judi Teeter, Esquire.

Further, the mediation training program will involve a CLE on Friday, December 12, 2014, titled “Current Issues Involving ADR in the Western District of Pennsylvania,” which is open to the public. As such, individuals not attending the full mediation training program are permitted to solely register for and attend this CLE. At the program, United States District Judge Nora Barry Fischer, Chair of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania’s ADR Committee, and ADR Committee Members United States District Judge Cathy Bissoon, United States District Judge Mark R. Hornak, United States Chief Magistrate Judge Lisa Pupo Lenihan, and United States Magistrate Judge Maureen P. Kelly will discuss ADR issues. In addition, Susan Schwochau (Duane Morris LLP) will present findings on the ADR satisfaction surveys; Patricia L. Dodge (Meyer, Unkovic & Scott, LLP) will speak on what will make a mediation successful; and David B. White (Burns White LLC) will discuss techniques for crossing the finish line. The complete schedule is:
